CAMP EBSB - X

20th to 25th September

EK BHARAT SHRESHTHA BHARAT SAPTAH X 20TH TO 25TH SEPTEMBER

NAVRATRI AND DUSSEHRA
This is the festival that continues to be celebrated for ages. On each day a different form of Goddess Durga is worshipped. Devoted people hold community dance programs where people come dressed up in ghagra-choli and they all dance in pain bleming with energy and excitement getting decorated women who perform as dancers. On sixth day people worship the gods in their homes where they regard as different images of Goddess Durga. Ninth day after the completion of Navratri is Dussehra, which the effigies of demon 'Ravana', 'Ramachandran' and 'Hansraj' are burnt to remember victory of good over evil.

INDEPENDENCE DAY
Independence day is the national festival. 15th August is observed as the Independence Day in India as on this day (1947) India was freed from the long imposed chains of oppressive British Rule. The Prime Minister of India addresses the public from Red Fort after which he proceeds to hoist the National Flag. Independence Day Parade of policemen and armed forces follows soon after this. This day is a
