Duration : 3 Hours Maximum Marks : 75

Instructions for Candidates

1. Write your Roll No. on the top immediately on receipt of this question paper.

Part A

Attempt 3 questions out of 5. Each question carries 10 marks. (3×10=30)

P.T.O.

1. Write a short note on Richard Schechner's Fan and Web theory.
2. Stanislavski's method lays emphasis on truth in performance. Write a short note on the ways in which actors can arrive at this truth.
3. "A performance is inseparable from the bodily co-presence of various groups of people who come together as actors and spectators". With reference to this statement write a short note on the central characteristics of performance vis-a-vis the dramatic text.
4. A performance is always created via the performance space and is perceived based on the conditions offered by the space. Write a short note on how performance space contributes to the performance.
5. Write a short note on the use of folk songs in the plays of the pre-independence period in India.

Part B

Attempt 3 questions out of 5. Each question carries 15 marks. $(3 \times 15 = 45)$

6. In his critique of the “dominant way of knowing in the academy” Conquergood suggests that the performance studies project offers an alternate “way of knowing that is grounded in active, intimate, hands-on participation and personal connection” contrasted to the “abstract and authoritative ‘view from above’, universal knowledge that pretends to transcend location”. Elaborate.
7. What is the A-effect? What are the ways in which A-effect can be achieved, and what are its political implications?
8. Performance refers to the “totality of the interplay between what happens on stage and the reactions of the spectators”. Elaborate.

9. Elaborate on the censorship of theatre in pre-independence India. What kind of plays did the colonial state feel compelled to censor?

10. With reference to various performance spaces (arena stage, thrust stage, round stage) discuss how the audience's experience of watching a performance on the proscenium stage is different from these other spaces.

The environment has been polluted in many different ways. The three major ways are water, land and air pollution. Water pollution is the contamination of lakes, caused by human activities. It can be harmful to organisms and PLANTS which live in the water. Water pollution occurs when wastes are discharged from waste-water treatment plants. Other known causes are factory wastes or leaking underground tanks. There can be chemical substances that are toxic. The polluted water can cause cholera and typhoid. Land pollution is the destruction of the earth's land surfaces. It is often caused by human activities such as careless disposal of wastes, over-mining of minerals & wrong use of land for planting. All these will affect our health in the long run. They will lead to all kinds of diseases such as cancer, heart disease and breathing problems. Land pollution also brings about natural disasters such as flash floods and landslides. Air pollution is also the result of humans activity where chemicals and other dangerously materials are released into the air. This happens through the release of carbon monoxide gas from exhaust pipes of motor vehicles. Other gases such as sulphur oxides are released from the burning of coal and oil. High air pollution levels can cause damage to the environment. It also brings discomfort to human beings and other living organisms.
