

Shyama Prasad Mukherji College for Women
University of Delhi
Feedback Report on Syllabus
Year: 2021-2022

The Google form was floated to collect the feedback on Syllabus from Students as well as Alumni's. The form consists of 10 questions related to the Syllabus.

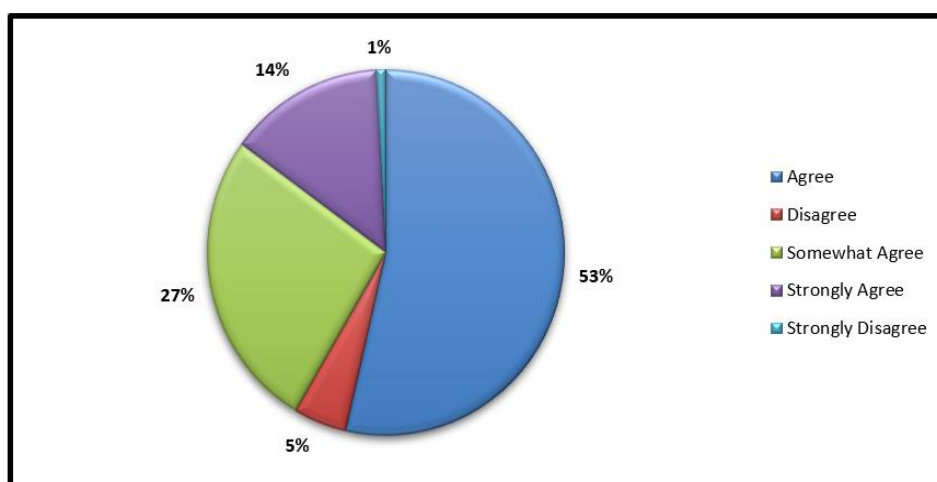

A. KEY FINDINGS BASED ON THE SURVEY COLLECTED FROM STUDENTS

Total responses received are 724.

Ques1. The Syllabus Clearly States learning Objectives for each course.

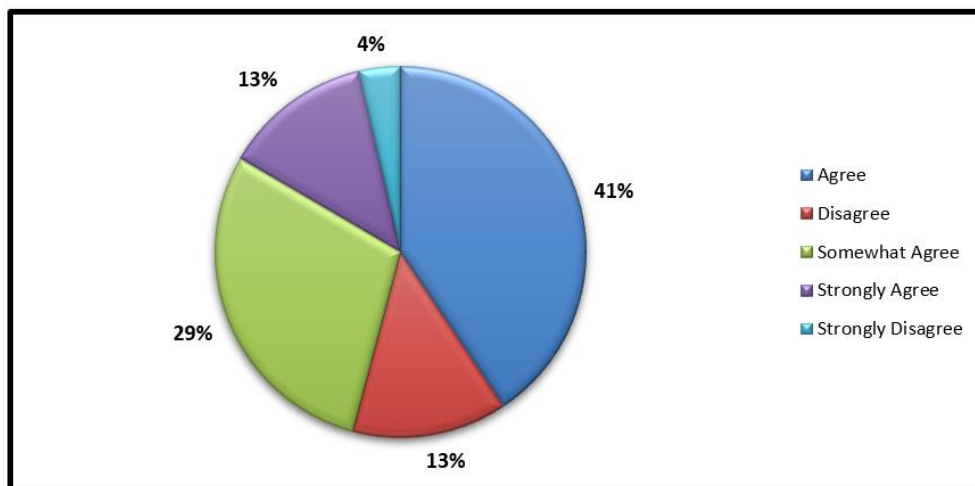

Ques2. The syllabus is well organized and outlines all essential information for each course.

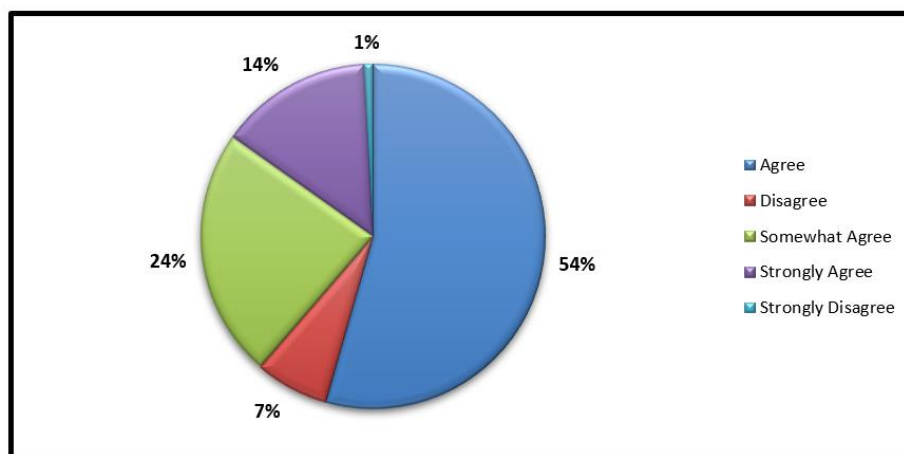

Ques3. The Syllabus fosters problem solving.

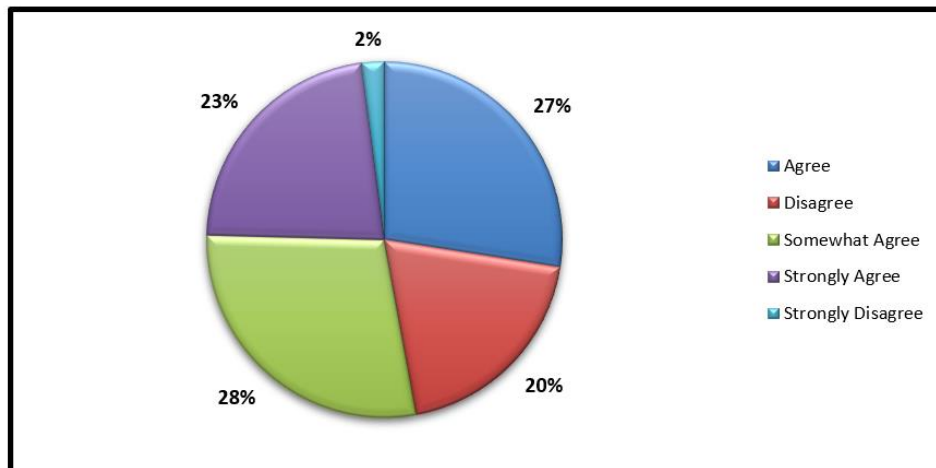

Ques4. The syllabus helps build student personality.

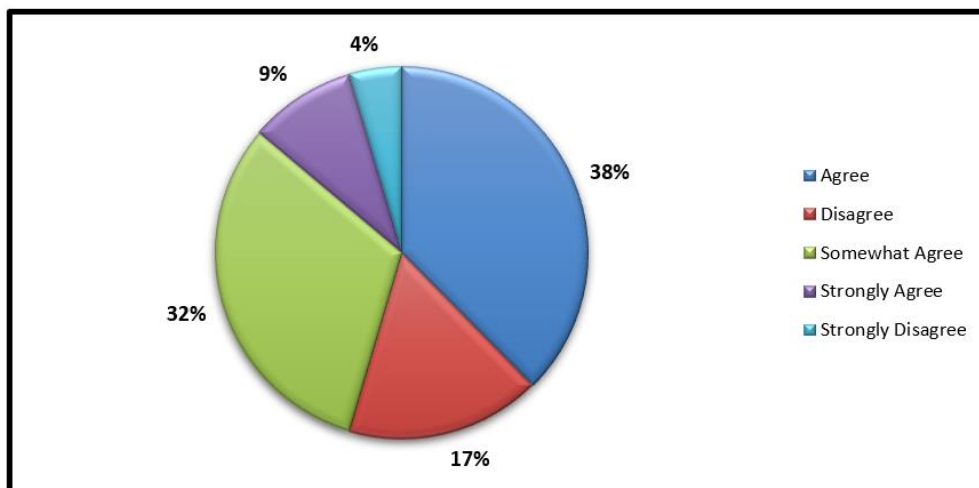

Ques5. The prescribed text Books/Reference Books are aligned to each of the course objectives.

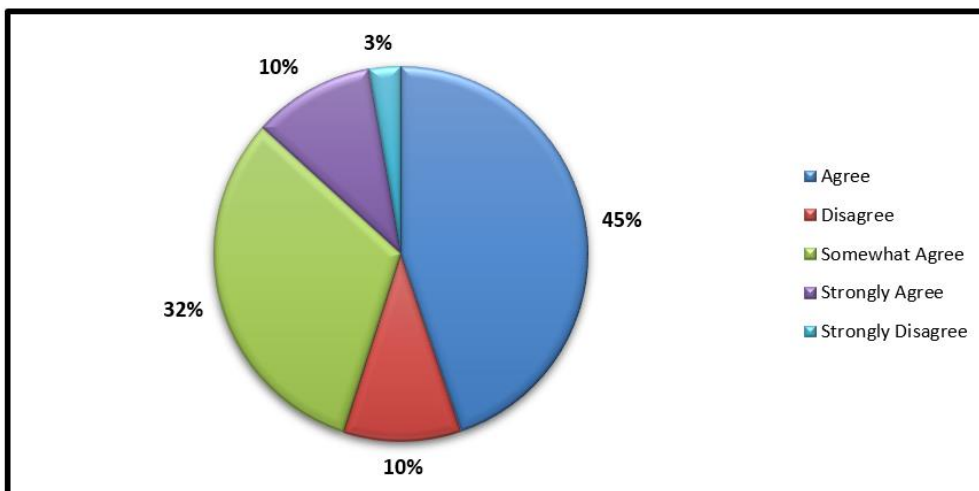

Ques6. The content of the syllabus is too heavy on the student.

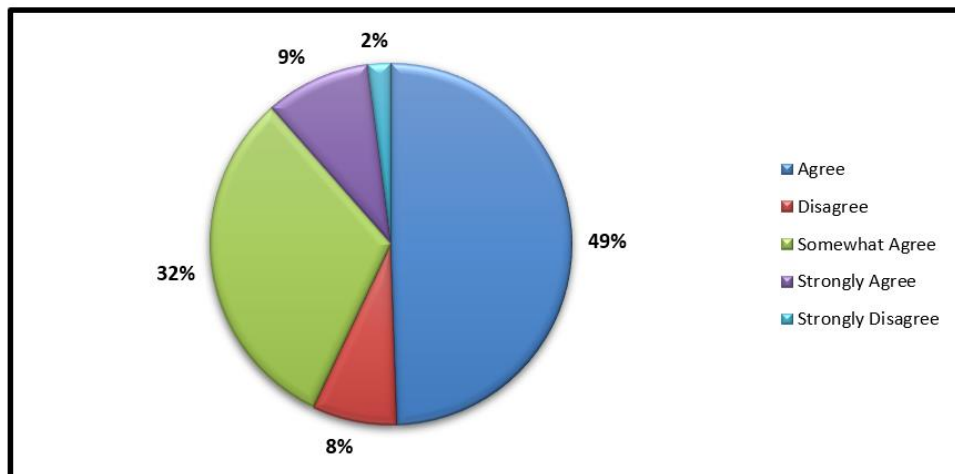

Ques7. The curriculum has right balance between theory and practice.

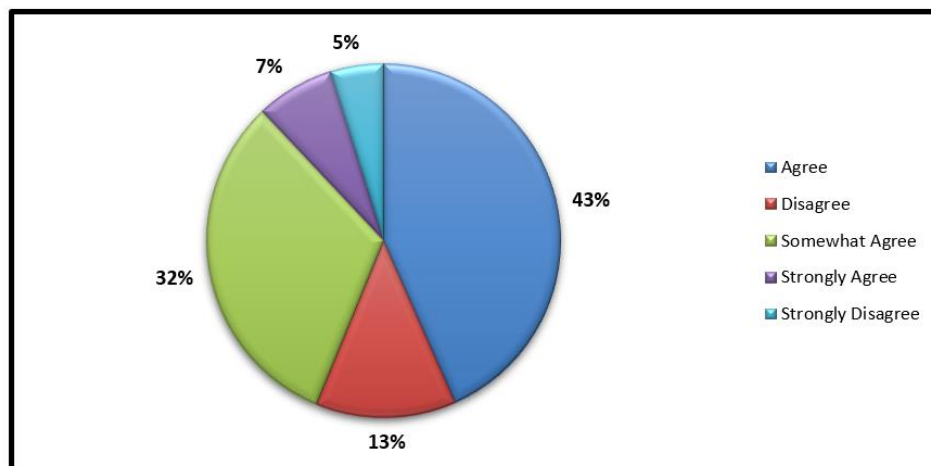

Ques8. Content of each course fosters extra learning / self-learning.

Ques9. Electives offered to the students are satisfactory.

Ques10. The curriculum has good academic flexibility to the students.

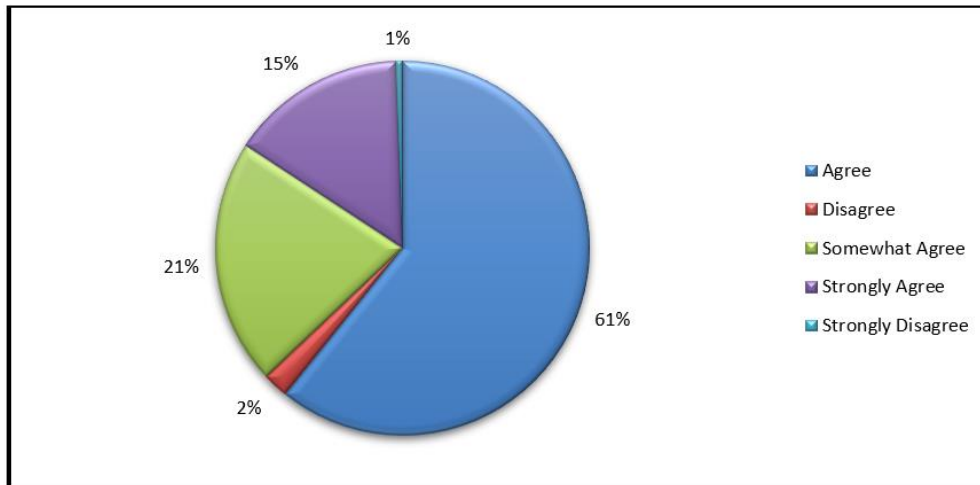

On the basis of responses received, following observations are made:

- Overall, the programme is well-liked by the students. There are still a number of areas that want improvement, though, since 20% of students believe the curriculum is too hard.
- About 17% of students believe that the curriculum is too demanding and prevents them from striking a balance between theory and practice.

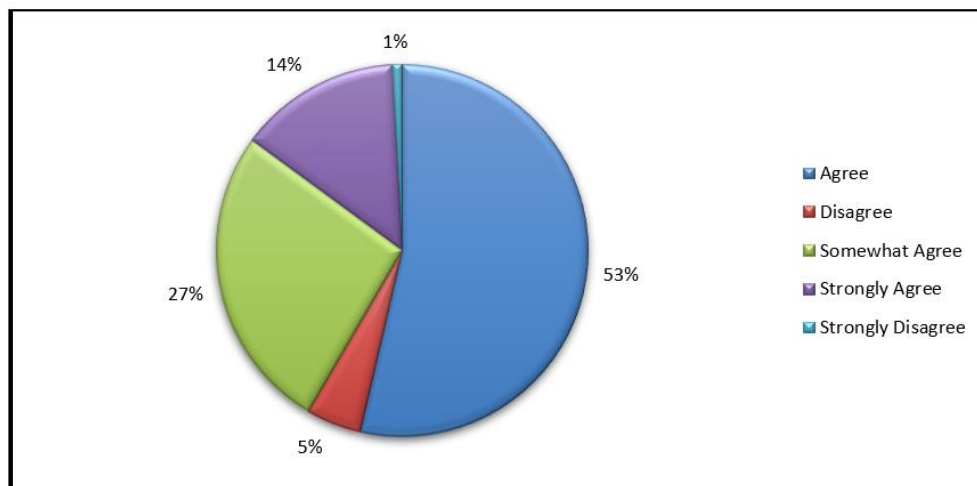

B. KEY FINDINGS BASED ON THE SURVEY COLLECTED FROM ALUMNI

Total responses received are 94.

Ques1. The Syllabus Clearly States learning Objectives for each course.

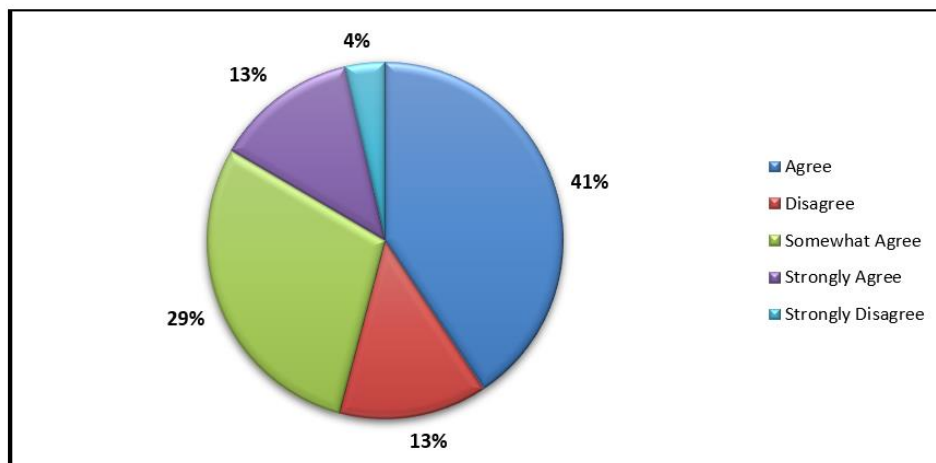

Ques2. The syllabus is well organized and outlines all essential information for each course.

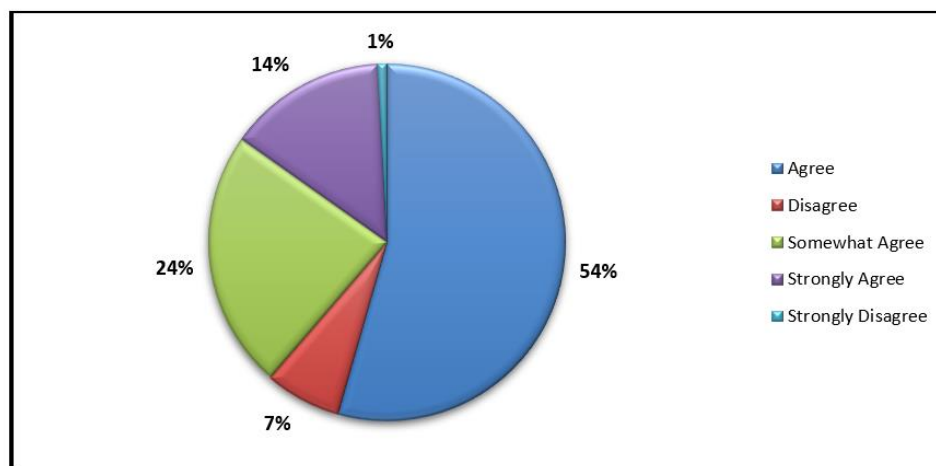

Ques3. The Syllabus fosters problem solving.

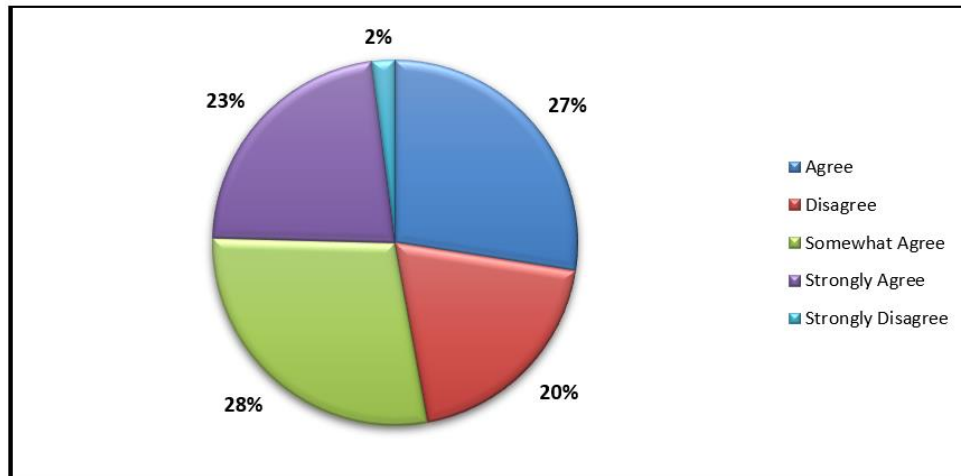

Ques4. The syllabus helps build student personality.

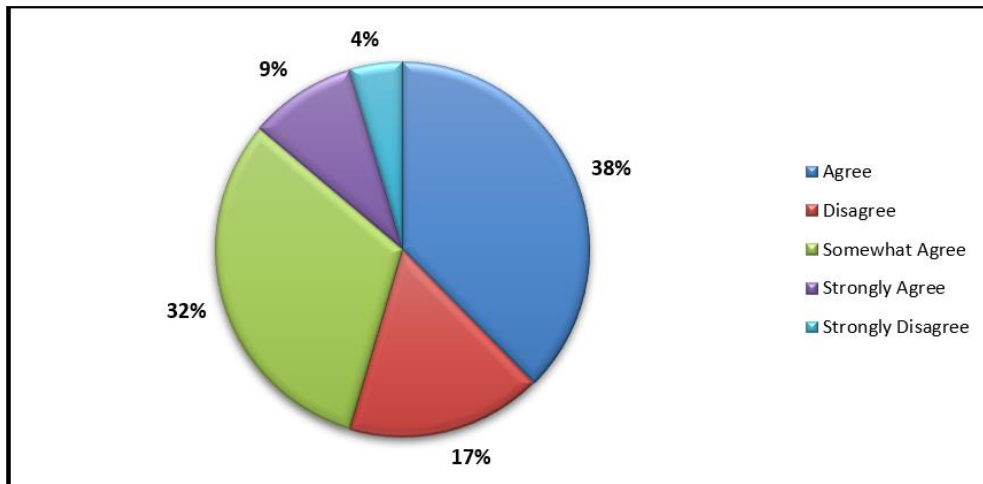

Ques5. The prescribed text Books/Reference Books are aligned to each of the course objectives.

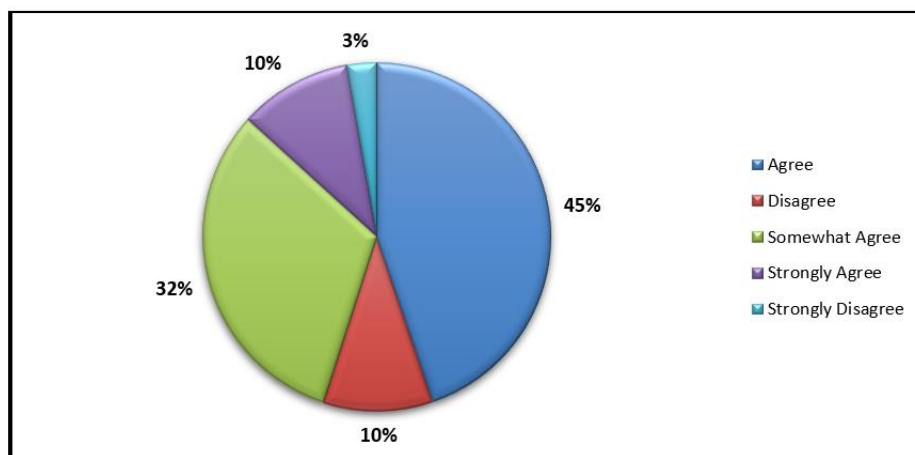

Ques6. The content of the syllabus is too heavy on the student.

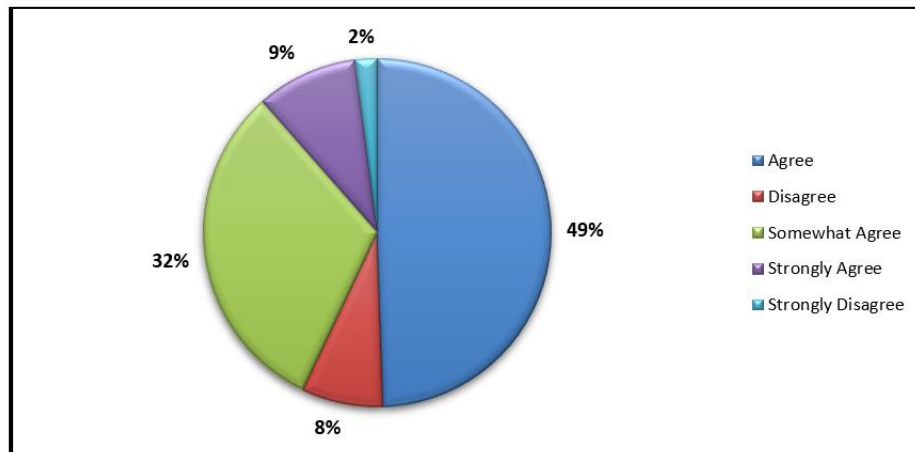

Ques7. The curriculum has right balance between theory and practice.

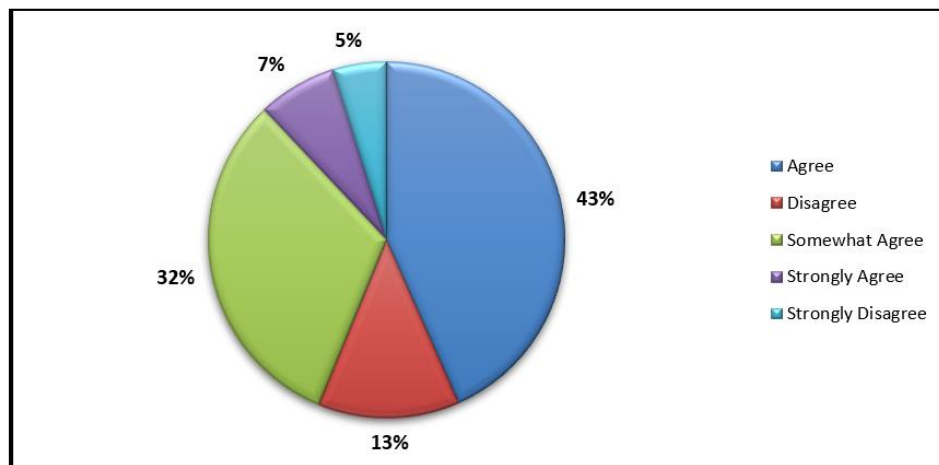

Ques8. Content of each course fosters extra learning / self-learning.

Ques9. Electives offered to the students are satisfactory.

Ques10. The curriculum has good academic flexibility to the students.

On the basis of responses received, following observations are made:

- Although alumni are overall satisfied with the syllabus, they have observed that certain aspects of the syllabi required improvement.
- Around 17% of the alumni feel that curriculum does not allow them to balance between theory and practice as curriculum is heavy.