WINNER
SONAM SAJANI

BROMANCING MUSIC: Band of Brothers

NEXT STOP SPMC: The auditions train of Oppo Delhi Times Fresh Face 2016 finally reached the junction of Shyama Prasad Mukherjee College for Women recently. Despite the heat and humidity, the event was attended by hundreds of girls – both freshers who participated, and seniors who cheered their juniors on.

JUST DANCE: The emcee, Madhukar, got the crowd cheering with his witty remarks. As the contestants introduced themselves, almost all of them said dancing was their hobby, prompting Madhukar to remark, "Agar yahan koi teachers hoti toh kehni yahan padhate bhi hain hum, sirf nachate nahin." DJ Khushi took it as cue to blast dance numbers whenever a contestant mentioned dancing, prompting them to dance on stage.

GARMI AND HOT GIRLS! There was even more entertainment on offer – pop group Band of Brothers judged the auditions, and even performed for the excited students, getting them to dance along to tracks like Kinna Sona, Patiala Peg and their recent single, Lak Tera. Akash, a band member, remarked, "Ek toh inki garmi aur phir west Delhi ki kudiyan bhi itni hot – yeh toh double assault ho gaya!"

After the three rounds, Sonam Sajani was crowned the winner, Tamanna Sivach the first runner-up, and Nikita Gautam the second runner-up.
